MEMORANDUM FOR DIRECTOR, CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Subj: Navy Reserve Air Intelligence Conference; request representatives of CIA to participate

Ref: (a) CNARESTRA ltr serial 041 of 26 Feb 1963

1. Reference (a) scheduled a Naval Air Reserve Intelligence Conference to be held at NARTU, NAF Andrews Air Force Base the week beginning 1 April 1963. The conference agenda includes a Washington Area Intelligence Agencies meeting on 4 April 1963. This meeting will have representatives from Washington, D.C. Intelligence Agencies which provide support to Fleet Intelligence Projects assigned to Naval Air Intelligence Reserve Units.

2. Reserve Air Intelligence Officers are periodically ordered to report to the Chief of Naval Operations for two weeks active duty for training. During this period, the officers are required to do research at the various intelligence agencies in this area in support of fleet projects assigned to individual units by the Chief of Naval Operations and the Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training. Representatives of CIA are invited to attend for the purpose of briefing Air Intelligence Program Officers on the methods and procedures required to support "need to know projects" assigned to Naval Air Intelligence Reserve Units.

3. Informal liaison with CIA representatives has indicated that the following personnel can best brief the conference in the appropriate areas of discussion.

STATINTL

[Redacted] - CIA Orientation and Briefing Officer (CIA Missions and Functions)

STATINTL

[Redacted] - Sa/Ad/CR - CIA (Research Facilities)

4. If feasible it is requested that the aforementioned gentlemen attend. Nominees names and clearances should be submitted directly to the Commanding Officer, NARTU, NAF, Andrews Air Force Base with a copy to the Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training, NAS Glenview, Illinois.
